Bridgewell elects John Drake to its board

Jan 23, 2024

Bridgewell, a nonprofit social and human services organization serving northeastern Massachusetts, has announced that John Drake has been elected to a three-year term on its Board of Directors.

“John brings extensive professional and nonprofit volunteerism experience to our board,” said Bridgewell President and CEO Christopher Tuttle. “Importantly, as a parent of a person with disabilities, he understands the value of our work and the challenges we have to overcome. We’re thrilled to welcome John to the board.”

Drake, a resident of Andover, is a managing director at Accenture, a global consulting, technology, and business services company, where he has worked for more than 30 years.
